Seasoned Adults Luncheon Program on Tuesday, April 2 at 11:30 AM

Elaine Graham, founder of Estate Sale Professionals, has more than 25 years of experience in resale. Her “Purple Vans” can often be seen around East Tennessee while conducting estate sales. Their business is to organize, research, price, and advertise the sale of all items that owners wish to sell.

Her topic: The Joy Decluttering. You will definitely enjoy coming to this program, (remember, you don’t have to be a “seasoned adult to attend), and gaining valuable insight into organizing your stuff! Whether you enjoy going to estate sales, plan to have one of your own sometime, know of someone that plans to have one, or simply want to declutter a home, come for a fun program.

Please call for reservations by Friday, March 29 by calling Freia Micha at 694-4200, Dot Ryan at 560-9687, or Linda Sturk at 771-4512. The cost of the catered lunch is $7/person.

There is more information posted on the fliers in the Ladies Restrooms and also on the LWML Bulletin board near the mailboxes. If you want to attend, I need numbers to our zone Christian Life Chairman by March 24 because Pastor Paavola is preparing customized materials for each church. Hope you can join me on April 6.
