Seasoned Adults Program for Tuesday, November 5

It’s a TOUR of the East Tennessee Historical Museum in downtown Knoxville on Gay Street. This museum is an extremely important storehouse of our region’s history. Learn about the people of earlier times, and hear “See Voices of the Land that We Live In.” (There is an admission of $3.00).

We need to car pool as much as possible. Plan to arrive in the church parking lot by 9:15 am. Travel maps will be provided as to what route to take and where to park. Following the 10:15-11:30 tour, we will walk one (1) block to the Downtown Grill and Brewery for lunch. We have confirmed reservations, and a lunch menu (see posted menu on hallway bulletin board) has a wide selection of food choices. DON’T MISS this opportunity to visit a place YOU ALWAYS wanted to go to, AND you don’t have to be a “seasoned adults” to attend. For questions: contact Gary Schneider (865-680-2434).

Did You Miss Church? Listen to the Sermons Online

A quote from Chuck and Lois Robinson: "Having been shut in recently, we appreciate hearing the sermons online. The messages have been just what we need and we cannot imagine not hearing them."

Every Sunday afternoon the sermon is posted on the Grace website: www.visitgrace.org. Then click "Sermons" and the most recent sermon will pop up. Older messages are available as well. If you are traveling or sick, you can still stay connected at Grace.
