

The Vow

The Vow of Pursuit

TALK IT OVER

Key Scripture

Therefore a man shall leave his father and his mother and hold fast to his wife, and they shall become one flesh.

Genesis 2:24

Key Points

- I promise to always pursue my two.
- My soul clings to you;
Psalm 63:8a

They are joined one to another; they clasp each other and cannot be separated. Job 41:17
- When you think something good, say it.

But encourage one another daily, as long as it is called "Today," so that none of you may be hardened by sin's deceitfulness. Hebrews 3:13
- When you think something special, do it.
- So whoever knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin.
James 4:17
- When you want something different, be it.

Remember therefore from where you have fallen; repent, and do the works you did at first... Revelation 2:5a

- Start thinking. Ask a question to get your group thinking.
- Read Genesis 2:24. What do you think it means to become united to a spouse?

Start sharing. Choose a question to create openness.

- Is there ever a gap between your intentions and actions. Share a story of how you overcome this.
- What makes you feel pursued? How does this impact the way you pursue others?
- What is some good you ought to do to pursue a godly marriage? Is anything holding you back?
- Pastor Danny said, "If you want something different, be it." How could you put this into action right away?

Pray:

Jesus, thank You for always showing us an unconditional and extravagant love. Align our hearts with Yours so we can love others better. Holy Spirit, help us to be faithful in always pursuing a Godly marriage. Amen!

Start doing. Commit to a step, and live it out this week.

- If you're married, ask your spouse today what makes them feel loved, then do it.
